

EGGVP renews Board at its 12th General Managers Meeting

Brussels, 2 October 2014 — On 19 September EGGVP held its 12th General Managers Meeting and elected new EGGVP Board in Brussels. M<sup>a</sup> Dolores Caínzos, from Laboratorios Maymó, was elected as new EGGVP Chair. The event was attended by over 40 delegates from EGGVP membership, which counts now 21 members from several EU countries.

The EGGVP members also welcomed Leo Aerden (VMD) and Xavier Molins (Cross Vetpharm) as new members of the Board, congratulated the re-elected members Rob Joosten (Dechra) and Slavka Pavlič (KRKA) and thanked the outgoing members Jan Moons (VMD) and Juan Pablo Ovejero (Laboratorios Ovejero) for their invaluable contributions to the common goals achieved during the last Board mandate.

At the meeting, the EGGVP General Managers also discussed the latest developments on antimicrobial resistance and the role of generic veterinary medicines, as well as the recently proposed regulatory framework for veterinary medicines and medicated feed. The activity review and milestone achievements of the association were also presented to the members, with a view over the challenges of the years to come for the industry of generic veterinary medicines.

The meeting ended with words of affection and gratitude for Rob Joosten, who has been EGGVP Chair for 13 years. The General Managers acknowledged the outstanding progress and results obtained under Rob's mandate, as well as his exemplary conduct and dedication towards EGGVP.

As it is tradition, a social event took place the day before. In this occasion, EGGVP members had the opportunity to visit Palm Brewery in combination with a visit to the famous Brabant draught horses at Diepensteyn Stud Farm. The visits were followed by dinner in Diepensteyn Castle, in Steenhuffel (Belgium).

About the new EGGVP Chair, M<sup>a</sup> Dolores Caínzos

Ms. Caínzos, who has been EGGVP Vice-Chair between 2007 and 2014, is Regulatory Affairs, R&D Director in Laboratorios Maymó, S.A. (Spain). She holds a Degree in Pharmacy and a MBA in Pharmaceutical Industry.

M<sup>a</sup> Dolores Caínzos has a wide experience both in the veterinary and human pharmaceutical industries, and also in multinational and national companies. She has been Vice-Chair of the Spanish Association of Pharmacists, and also professor at Veterinary Post Graduate courses and MBA's.

EGGVP members applauded the election of Ms. Caínzos to represent the political, scientific, technological and regulatory interests of the whole EGGVP Membership. “With the continued support and strategic guidance of the Board and Members, I will make all efforts to continue to affirm EGGVP position as a key stakeholder on veterinary medicines, animal health and food safety related issues, as well as to promote the role of generic veterinary medicines, which is the overall goal of our association”, pointed out the new EGGVP Chair.

For more information please contact the EGGVP at info@eggvp.org or visit our website at www.eggvp.org